For immediate release:

The Spiritus Employee Charitable Foundation (SECF) has chosen the Kids to Love Foundation as the first recipient of its annual $5,000 grant. Founded last year, SECF is an employee-funded, nonprofit corporation that provides financial support to North Alabama nonprofits that aid those in need.

SECF is part of a community service commitment of Spiritus Inc., a veteran-owned engineering and management support company specializing in defense-related test planning and integration.

Founded in 2004 by Emmy award-winning television journalist Lee Marshall, the Kids to Love Foundation meets the needs of foster children while they await permanent homes.

The grant will be presented at 9 a.m. Fri., Jan. 21, at Kids to Love, 101 Monroe St. in downtown Huntsville.

For more information about SECF, e-mail Christine Karlson or Darall Harris at secf@spiritus-inc.com.
